

24 truly disgusted with computers and that pretty much
25 locked him out of doing e-mail and, yes, I know now

119

1 most
2 must older people and people who have less ability
3 to write and use keyboards and stuff who did their
4 own e-mail, but the point is I was there, he knew I
5 was checking e-mail anyway and I did things for 6 him.

6 Q. Did you handle any other types of
7 communications? Did he get very much e-mail?

8 A. He got e-mail -- once his brothers and 9 his sister got on the internet, they all have 10 grandchildren and he started to get things like
11 E-cards from his sister and one time he asked me,
12 sent
13 send me this E-card, can we send her one
14 back? I said sure, we'll find one and I found one
15 with a cat on it and we sent an E-card.

15 His friend Harry in New York had 16 been communicating with him quite a bit. Harry is 17 online a lot. Harry is older than and still 18 living, and he would use me to write back to
19 to his brother is one of these people
20 who sends a lot of e-mails to like everybody he

21 knows, so I would tell him about e-mails
22 and he would answer those and I would send them.
23 Sometimes he would send a long e-mail
24 to and he would type it and give it to me and 25 I would retype it and send it. And one time he

120

1 ^{gave} give me one, it was like a page single-spaced and I
2 said, why don't you give ^{me} he this on a flash drive
3 because his computer wasn't hooked up to the
4 internet. I couldn't get it off of his -- you
5 know, I had to get it from him on a flash drive and
6 then put it in so I didn't have to sit there and
7 type the whole thing.

8 But if it was like this long or less, I
9 would rekey it. If it was longer, I would say
10 let's put it on a bean and I'll get it from you.
11 It was always such a pain because he didn't want to 12 change. I am sorry. I'm running on and on.

13 Q. What kind of computer did he have?

14 A. An Apple iMac with ^{Appleworks} Apple Works from the 15 ^{'90s} nineties, which meant that when I put ^{his} his syllabi on 16 Blackboard, I would get them from him as a text
17 ^{to} file and have so reformat a little bit and the ^{then}
18 upload them.

11 A. I did not have access. didn't, as
12 far as I know, ever have online access. I don't
13 ~~know~~ even know if M&T has an online thing.
14 Q. But if did have access, he would ^{have?}
15 only been able to access it through you based upon
16 his practice?
17 A. That's quite through, yes. ^{true?}
18 Q. Did he have any idea how much was in 19 the M&T account?
20 A. At that point, probably not. He knew
21 what was in the account until December of the 22 previous year but by March he probably -- I mean,
23 he hadn't been talking to and she hadn't been
24 doing her usual ^{hyphenate} go through the checkbook thing, so
25 no, I don't believe he would have known. I don't

134

^{if?}
1 know anybody could have known.
2 Q. When did she stop going through the
3 checkbook with or yourself?
4 A. She only with it through me once and it
5 was the last time I spoke with her and that was the 6 first week of December, I believe.
7 Q. Did she ever speak with again on 8 the own or was he not capable?
